THE '69 SCRAPBOOK

Kennard–Dale High School
Fawn Grove, Pennsylvania
1968–69

FOREWORD

Pictures can relive a lifetime. All the memories that you have enacted during this past year have come to life again through these pictures. Dances, games, and assemblies are only the few events covered within this book.

Many years from now when looking through the following pages full of the candids of you and your fellow students you will again live these youthful days.

Some of you will laugh; but some, the most sentimental, will cry. Whichever you may do, we, the 1969 Seniors, hereby present to you "The '69 Scrapbook."

DEDICATION

The 1969 Fawn Staff is proud to dedicate "The '69 Scrapbook" to two people who we feel have given generously of their time throughout the years to help our class.

They were our Junior Class Advisors and were so patient with us during the hours of decorating for the prom. In addition to this, you can see Miss Waltemyer rushing around getting programs ready for plays, musicals, and many other activities. Also, Mr. Keesey and his boys are always on hand to help make props for the dances and plays.

It is with sincere gratitude and appreciation that we dedicate the 1969 FAWN to . . .

Miss Carol Waltemyer
and
Mr. Donald Keesey

To The Class of 1969:

That long awaited day has finally arrived, Graduation Day 1969. It has been our pleasure to share your friendship and educational experience as you progressed through the various schools in the South Eastern School District.

I am certain that as the years go by, you will page through the 1969 Fawn and recall the events of your senior year with joy and pride. It is my sincere wish that this yearbook will mark the beginning of a happy and successful future.

Dear Seniors:

It has been my pleasure to have had a part in the transformation of the Class of 1969 from a group of insecure seventh graders entering in the autumn of 1963, to the mature young men and women graduating from Kennard-Dale in June of 1969.

I extend my personal congratulations to each of you for your attainment of the high school diploma. Your diploma can and should be the basis for the development of your future plans.

Your parents, your church, school, and community look to you for a better tomorrow.

Sincerely yours,

James F. Howell

The attitude of the class also indicates you are willing to accept the challenge of providing a better life for all Americans.

Congratulations to you on your graduation. Best wishes for a happy and successful future.

But it wasn't Juicy Fruit

Since when did Mr. Howell start parking in the Student Parking Lot!!

That 6th period philosophy class.

It's a Mad World.

Will the seven day beauty plan really work?

He's eating his Cheerios!

The building was frightening and huge,
Our friends were far and few,
But as the years have passed, we know at last.
We are K-D's '69 graduating class.

We had our eighth-grade dance when the Beatles were tops,
So we titled our dance the "Beatle Bop".
A trip to Gettysburg, I remember then;
Our class had lunch at Devil's Den.

We chose a course in our freshman year.
High School years really started here.
With Harrisburg as our destination,
We found the city as part of the nation.

The scene for our sophomore dance was
"Out at Sea"
With the Romans riding the Sloop John B.
Delaware was ours for a day.
We visited Hagley Museum along the way.

A trip to Washington began our junior year.
The time was beginning for joy and fear.
Our Prom was at a "flowery pace."
The theme of our dance was "A Summer Place."

Our senior year is here at last.
The daisy is the flower of our class.
The colors were chosen as yellow and white.
We say, "Arm yourself with the Truth" to be right.

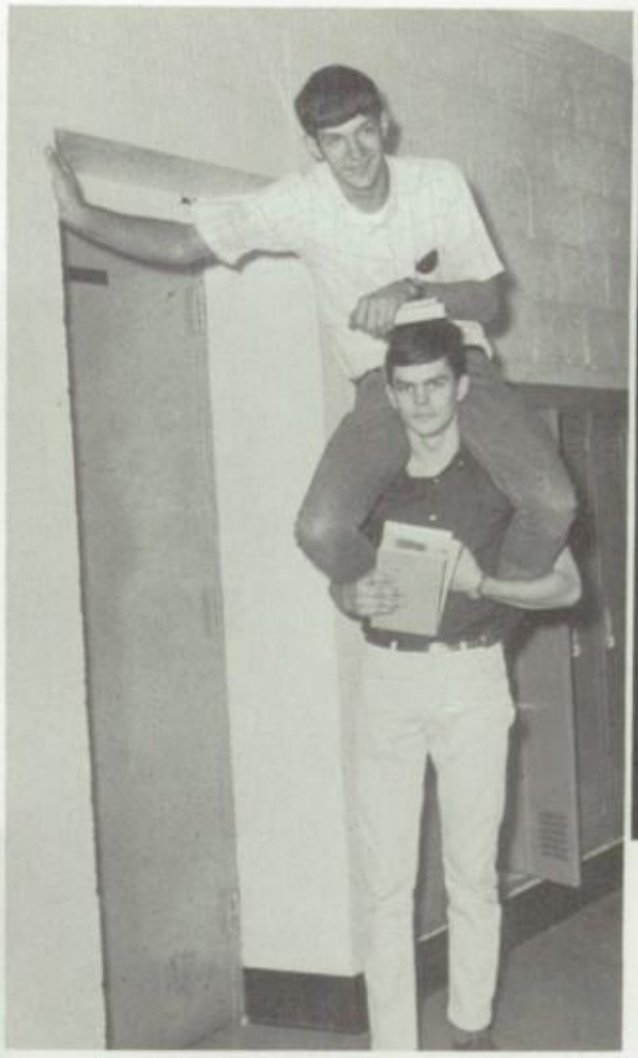
Patty Baker,
Historian

Not a football!



Its the only way to travel.

"STATE FAIR" AND "THE THREAD THAT RUNS SO TRUE"

The stage of the Auditorium was the highlight of eleven junior students who presented "State Fair": a three act comedy by Luella McMahon and Christopher Serge, on April 26 and 27, 1968.

It is a story based on all the events the Frake family have had at the Iowa State Fair.

Abel Frake's hog, Blueboy, becomes love sick before the contest and gives him much discomfort.

Mrs. Rallins, the grouchy ol' pickle champion from last year, is bribing the judges and constantly annoying Melissa Frake.

While Margy and Wayne Frake are getting more involved with their flings at the fair, they begin forgetting the ones they left at home. It then becomes very difficult for them to make a decision as to which ones they like best.

As the Frake's finally leave the fair, they find that they have gotten everything that they had wished for.

Is it a fad, Boys???

The old bag ain't what she use to be.

Yea, tell me about it.

Yahoooo!!!

Senior Play

"The Thread That Runs So True" by Jesse Stuart was presented on November 22–23, 1968 in the auditorium by the seniors.

This story takes place in 1925 and involves the difficulty Jesse Stuart, the teacher, has keeping a school open. The old aged school board cannot understand the modern way and won't co-operate with Jesse.

Fist fights and a love affair are part of Jesse's troubles, too. A small revision of the school board and an educational contest make people realize that education is the thread that runs so true.

The school room awaits.

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, & REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. ❧ Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. ❧ Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ❧ Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ❧ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ❧ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ❧ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ❧ With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. ❧ ❧

IN MEMORIAM

MISS FLORENCE L. SEAKS
1924–1969

Miss Seaks born July 21, 1924, was Head of the English Department at Kennard-Dale since September 1952, the year the school opened. Before coming to Kennard-Dale, she taught at the Stewartstown High School. Because of illness, she was granted a sabbatical leave on November 16, 1968. On March 13, 1969 she passed away.

With much sadness and grief, we dedicate this page as a memorial to Miss Seaks.

She will always be remembered in the hearts of many. . . .
